

“The following is a direct script of a teaching that is intended to be presented via video, incorporating relevant text, slides, media, and graphics to assist in illustration, thus facilitating the presentation of the material. In some places, this may cause the written material to not flow or sound rather awkward in some places. In addition, there may be grammatical errors that are often not acceptable in literary work. We encourage the viewing of the video teachings to complement the written teaching you see below.”

A Righteous Judge?

Deuteronomy 30:11

“Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.”

I once heard a minister say that God gave the law to show that we can't walk in His ways. To basically show that we are unable to reach His standards. He said it was all to show our need for Yeshua. If this is so, then how could YHWH, the righteous judge, have condemned anyone for not following something that they were completely unable to follow?

Think about it. Do we really believe that YHWH would give His chosen people something that He knew they couldn't accomplish, knowing it would result in him judging them and even divorcing them? All the while He tells them that it's NOT too hard for them?

Does that sound like a righteous judge to you?

Psalm 7:11

“God judges the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.”

Just a thought.

Remember, continue to test everything.

Shalom!
